

The sweep variable and range are defined in the "DC" controller.

Units are defined as uA in the I_DC source component.

The sweep parameters are displayed by editing the component and going to the "Display" page in the parameter dialog.

The variable IBB is initialized here, but the value is set in the "DC" controlloer.